WARMING UP.

State Politics Becoming Serious With First Opening of Spring.

That an early spring flood of state politics is the certain result of the present winter thaw in candidacies is the opinion of a great many politicians who are beginning to note a warning of political storms.

To determine what part they will take in fall and summer activities a number of Republicans met Tuesday evening in the Wilson hotel to talk over coming events and to plan for them. Tonight they will meet again in larger numbers at the Kenyon, and the themes up for discussion will be convention dates, the selection of delegates to the national Republican convention, the coming state convention, and general matters of organization.

Last night the Women's Democratic club met to make preliminary arrangements for a Jefferson day banquet, to be held April 9, at the Kenyon. An invitation has been sent to William J. Bryan to be present, and it is hoped that either he or some other Democrat of national reputation will be able to attend.

EXCITING ENCOUNTER.

Special Officer Riley Overpowers Suspicious Character on Brigham St.

Special Officer C. C. Riley who patrols South Temple street to Sixth East, had an exciting struggle with a suspicious character last night and had a narrow escape from being seriously injured with a "jimmy." Riley overpowered his man and landed him in jail. The prisoner gave the name of James Green and says he is a blacksmith. He gave his age as 22 years. Riley says he saw the man prowling about in front of the residence of J. D. Wood and when he called upon the man to halt the latter put up a fight. Riley believes the man was trying to break into the residence. Besides the "jimmy," Green had a candle on him. The police said that he was not trying to break into a house, and that he carried the candle because he had been beating his way on the stairs.

ARRESTED.

GIRL OF WOOLEY WEST.

Belle Mellen of Denver Insists on Sleeping With Shoes On.

Belle Mellen, a 16-year-old girl who escaped from the industrial school at Denver, and who is being held at the city jail here awaiting the arrival of Colorado authorities, is causing jailers Wilkenson considerable trouble because the girl insists on sleeping with her shoes on and thus soiling the jail linen. Last night Wilkenson remonstrated with the girl and she informed him that she would sleep with her shoes on, and die with them on if she wanted to, and asked the jailer what he proposed doing about it.

The jailer is thinking the matter over.

W. W. Gray, an attorney at Wenatche, Wash., says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for colds and croup with good results. I am always keep this remedy in the house." Sold by all druggists.

HOTEL PORTER STABBED.

Henry Tuttle Badly Cut Up by William Eaton of Ogden.

Henry Tuttle, claiming to be a porter at the Wilson hotel, was stabbed several times about 9 o'clock last night during a fight in an alley leading off from the Wilson hotel. William Eaton of Ogden did the cutting. Both men were arrested by Officer Harris and taken to headquarters. Eaton had a knife in his hand at the time of the attack. Tuttle was stabbed in several places and his clothing was cut to ribbons.

Eaton tells a different story than the one related by the injured man. He says that Tuttle dragged him into the alley and began beating him. Fearing he was about to be robbed and perhaps murdered he drew a knife and defended himself. Tuttle declared that he had a row with Eaton and the latter challenged him to go into the alley and fight. He says he accepted the challenge, and that Eaton at once made a murderous assault with the knife. The police are investigating the affair.

GIMBLERS GET POSTER ON POLICE

Take Stock of the New and Entertaining Officer for Future Reference.

IT IS HARD TO BREAK IN NOW.

Visit to Lester Harrison's Place in D. F. Walker Building Results in Laugh from Wicket Keeper.

The expose made by the "News" of the gambling going on in this city is bearing fruit, and good fruit, too. Several places named by this paper have been raided and the keepers and occupants arrested. Other raids will follow just as fast as the police are able to gain admittance to the dens.

As a result of the notoriety given to the houses, some of them have been closed while others are operating in a most careful way. It is known that at least two have shut up shop and the "nothing doing" sign has been hung in front of the doors. Others, where gambling has been going on for many months, under the guise of a club, will no longer admit any but those who will know to the lookout.

The recent raid of a gambling joint in the Kenyon hotel building by Officer Conyers and the gambler will be a great pitch of excitement. When the prisoners were arraigned in Judge Diehl's court it was noticed that most of the spectators were gamblers and those who frequent the places named by the "News." They were there, not out of the curiosity, but for the purpose of "getting a line" on the new officer. The gamblers do not propose to be caught napping again—if they can help it.

FAILED TO GET IN.

Following the raid at the Kenyon, a visit was made to Lester Harrison's place in the D. F. Walker building, but the gambler failed to get in. He went to the little wicket and explained that he was a stranger in town, that he had money and wanted to "sit in" a quiet little game of poker. The officer failed to get in because he was recognized. He was informed that, while a game was going on, it was for "club members only."

Another place visited was Reagan's, opposite Keith-O'Brien's. The rooms were in darkness. Reagan had closed up. Whether he was scared or not does not matter, but there was no game there. It is understood that he told one of the local detectives that he was at last convinced that the police meant business and had decided to close up. The joint which has been running under the name of Wilson house on Commercial street is also closed tight, and there is no longer a game there. The same condition of affairs exists at the "Miner's" saloon. An effort to get in a game at Lavelle's proved unsuccessful, but the police are confident of making a case against other houses named by the "News."

NEIGHBORHOOD FAVORITE.

Mrs. E. D. Charles, of Harbor Maine, speaking of Electric Bitters says: "It is a neighborhood favorite here with us." It deserves to be a favorite everywhere. It gives quick relief in dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney derangement, malnutrition, nervousness, weakness and general debility. Its action on the blood, as a thorough purifier, is especially useful as a spring medicine. This granular tonic is sold under guarantee at Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept., 112 and 114 South Main Street, Price 50c.

AMUSEMENTS.

Theater—Paul Gilmore is a handsome young actor, who, without being great, possesses sufficient dash, intelligence and experience to give something out of a play, if he only had the play. Knowing that Mr. Gilmore possesses these attributes, it was some time before an astonishment to his friends last night, to see him laboring through such a distressful conglomeration of trash, as that which the author of "The Wheel of Love" has pitchedforked. The play is really better than the play itself. It is especially convulsed the galleries last night. With the exception of Mr. Gilmore himself, and Miss Phyllis Young, a girl well known in Salt Lake, and who played a colorless role in the cast that called for much more mention than the play itself.

The advances sale for "Comin' Thro' the Rye," is now going on at the theater boxoffice.

Orpheum—The week's bill is making a steady hit and the business goes on mounting nightly. The circus features are especially interesting.

Grand—Tonight sees the first presentation of "The Denver Express," the feature of which is the crossing of the stage by an express train at the rate of "a mile a minute."

Lyric—"A Daughter of Virginia" opened at the matinee yesterday, and the Johns again gave good evidence of her ability. The play is a very dramatic, laid in the war of the Rebellion. The old folks were the guests of the management yesterday, fifty grand old men and women enjoying the matinee.

BABY HANDS.

Will get into mischief—often it means a burn or cut or scald. Apply Ballard's Liniment just as soon as the accident happens, and the pain will be relieved while the wound will heal quickly. It is a nice, sure cure for sprains, rheumatism and all the ills that afflict you. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Store, 112-14 Main Street. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 a bottle.

The committee in charge of the girls includes Mrs. P. B. Stephens and Mrs. A. J. Hosmer, while the judges will be Mrs. C. E. Allen, Mrs. A. J. Gorman and Miss Ethel Paul. The girls who will take part are the Misses Alberta McCann, Edith Thurman, Cecil Shores, Catherine Marmon, Bessie Kennedy, Edith Kennedy and Louise Duggan. The boys will be Gordon Douglas, Frederick Wehler, John Ellis and Fred Barker. The committee for the boys is made up of J. Walcott Thompson and Judge M. L. Ritchie. The judges will be Prof. F. W. Reynolds, Prof. G. M. Marshall and D. H. Christensen, superintendent of the city schools.

THE JUMPING OFF PLACE.

"Consumption had me in its grasp, and I had almost reached the jumping off place when I was rescued by Dr. King's New Discovery; and I want to say right now, it saved my life. Improvement began with the first bottle, and after taking the dozen bottles I was a well and happy man again," says George Moore, of Grimsland, N. C. As a remedy for coughs and colds and healer of weak, sore lungs, and for those who are suffering from tuberculosis, Dr. King's New Discovery is the most reliable and sure cure. It is sold by Z. C. M. NERVOUSNESS AND NERVE.

The most nervous of the least nerve has. That sounds paradoxical—but it isn't; for nerve is stamina. Hood's Sarsaparilla gives nerve. It tones the whole system, perfects digestion and assimilation, and is therefore the best medicine a nervous person can take.

If you get tired easily; mentally and physically take Hood's—it will do you good.
